Funds

in the PPK scheme

The money accumulated in the PPK scheme will be invested in target-date funds that apply different investment policies and varied risk levels depending on the age of the PPK Participant. The PPK Participant will invest in one subfund throughout the saving period and the subfund, as the PPK Participant gets closer to the age of 60, will automatically change its investment policy so that it ensures the appropriate security of the entrusted money. The aim of this is to reduce the level of investment risk depending on the Participant's age in accordance with the rule: the closer to the age of 60, the more secure.

We put our investment decisions into practice by skilfully selecting the industries and companies on the basis of sound market analysis and internal macroeconomic forecasts. We select those companies and markets which have the biggest potential for growth. We thoroughly assess the risk level to maintain the adequate level of investment security.

TFI Allianz Polska S.A. created the fund Allianz SFIO PPK, an open-end specialised investment fund with 9 target-date subfunds:

Allianz PPK 2025	for persons born in years 1963-1967 (or older, at the person's request),
Allianz PPK 2030	for persons born in years 1968-1972,
Allianz PPK 2035	for persons born in years 1973-1977,
Allianz PPK 2040	for persons born in years 1978-1982,
Allianz PPK 2045	for persons born in years 1983-1987,
Allianz PPK 2050	for persons born in years 1988-1992,
Allianz PPK 2055	for persons born in years 1993-1997,
Allianz PPK 2060	for persons born in years 1998-2002,
Allianz PPK 2065	for persons born in years 2003-2007.

Each of the subfunds is a target-date subfund as defined by the Act on the PPK scheme, and its name specifies the year in which the persons born in the mid-range year of the age group for which a given subfund is dedicated will reach the age of 60. Every Participant will be automatically assigned to the relevant target-date subfund based on his or her date of birth.

The Fund may set up new subfunds with their target date falling every 5 years for subsequent five-year age groups.

Allianz SFIO PPK fund is actively managed and it is not managed in reference to any benchmark index.

When joining the PPK scheme, every Participant will be automatically assigned to a specific target-date subfund, but he or she may nevertheless actively manage the money accumulated in his or her account. The Participant may request conversion of participation units into units in other subfund(s) than the one relevant to his or her age. When making a request for conversion, the Participant must specify the target percentage of money accumulated in the PPK scheme to be allocated to specific subfunds, where payment into one subfund should correspond to at least 10% of the money accumulated in the PPK scheme. The fund processes the conversion requests free of charge.

Subfunds invest their assets mainly in debt instruments (debt portion) and equity instruments (equity portion). With a view to security of the entrusted money and in order to align the risk level to the Participant’s age, the investment rules have been described in detail in the PPK Act and in accordance with its provisions the equity portion and the debt portion of the above subfunds will be, respectively:

Investment rules with reference to the age of the PPK Participant

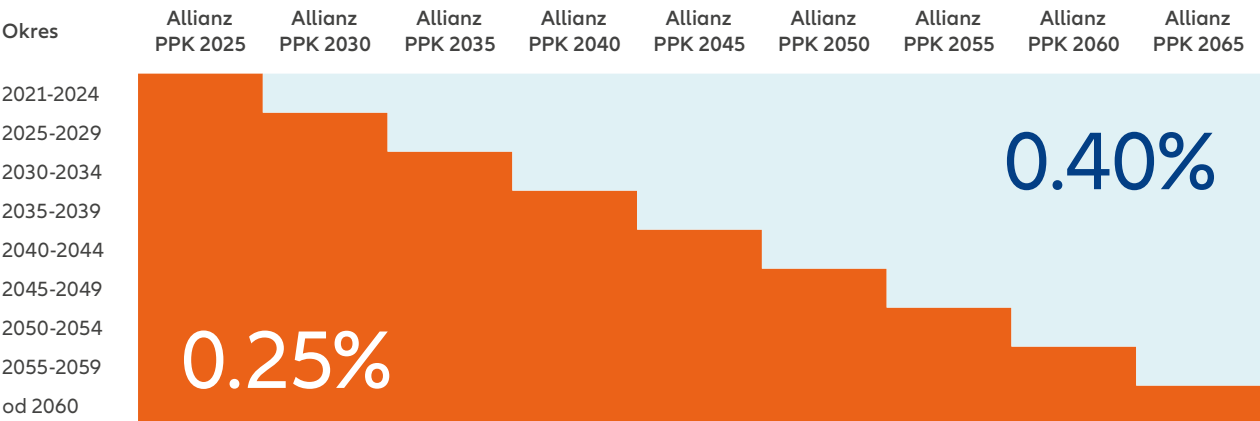

Financial terms and conditions

Presented below are the financial terms for running the Employee Capital Plan (PPK) and management of assets within its framework by TFI Allianz Polska S.A.

Fund performance as at 31.12.2023.

The figures presented relate to past performance and are not a guarantee of future performance.

Investing in PPK funds has many advantages, but it is important to remember that the benefits are accompanied by risks that may result in failure to achieve the expected return on investment, such as among others:

- market risks, e.g. change in the country's economic situation, inflation and interest rates, legal regulations, currency exchange rates,
- credit risks, e.g. deterioration of the issuers' financial standing, including downgrading of the credit rating by a recognised rating agency,
- investment risks, such as a change in the liquidity of issuers, a fall in the value or an increase in the price of financial instruments (such as shares or bonds),

- operational risks, e.g. irregularities in respect of the fund management company's (TFI) IT systems or procedures of concluding transactions,
- risk of failure to settle the transactions concluded by the fund within the period specified in the transaction agreement.

A detailed description of the risks connected with investing in a given fund may be found in the prospectus. TFI Allianz Polska S.A. makes every effort to limit the risks connected with an investment in PPK funds.

Proposed scope of services

As a financial institution, we would like to become a long-term partner of the employer, providing full support both at the Employee Capital Plan (PPK) roll-out stage and after it is put in place. In the course of our cooperation we will also focus on maximising process automation so that the employer has less work in daily operations. To this end, we will provide the relevant IT solutions for the employer and employees.

Comprehensive support for the Employer

The scope of actions during the roll-out of the PPK scheme includes all the activities enabling the employer to quickly and efficiently implement the scheme in the company:

- setting up together a schedule of work to roll out the PPK scheme,
- assistance in talks with employee representatives or trade unions,
- active participation in preparing documentation necessary to set up the scheme, in particular to prepare the management agreement and the agreement for the operation of the PPK scheme,
- providing the employer with an application for the PPK scheme,
- training for persons responsible for handling the PPK scheme on the part of the employer,
- assistance in handling the application: access and data management, preparing data and contributions transmission files etc.,
- enabling current reporting,
- facilitating actions related to disbursements under the scheme for housing purposes and in the case of serious illness.

Our IT environment has been fully integrated with the systems of Comarch and Symfonia, which saves time related to export and import of data as well as data verification by the employer. The employer will be able to forward PPK documents directly to the IT systems of Company.

Comarch PPK application is a module integrated with Comarch ERP HR payroll modules, but it can also operate independently, cooperating with the payroll systems of other ERP companies.

Symfonia i Place One Payroll system is a comprehensive module, in which the employer will handle HR and payroll issues as well as PPK documentation in one place.

The application for the PPK scheme for employers gives the possibility of uploading files generated from HR and payroll systems in any format, i.e. xml, excel, and of entering data directly into the application. We participated in the work, of the PPK project group including companies from the ERP sector (UNIT4, ASSECO SOFTLAB, COMARCH, SYMFONIA). Other entities offering HR and payroll systems and representatives of transfer agents also took part in our work so we were able to design our solutions taking into account their expectations. As a result of this, we offer an integration directly with HR and payroll systems through API, webServices with the system of the Transfer Agent.

In addition, we offer comprehensive services as regards communication activities:

- conducting an information campaign for employees,
- preparing an information package (in electronic form) for employees, presenting:
 - the proposed terms of saving in the PPK scheme and description of the investment process,
 - data concerning performance in asset management as regards investment funds,
 - our experience in investment fund management,
- duty hours of a dedicated specialist during the roll-out period,
- preparing a manual for employees regarding the use of the online platform for management of their assets in the PPK scheme.

Comprehensive support for Employees

Support for employees will be provided by way of:

- dedicated account manager,
- annual summary of meetings concerning the operation of the scheme in the company, including preparation of a periodic commentary on the investment performance of the funds managed in the PPK scheme,
- information materials,
- creating a dedicated helpline for Participants of the PPK.

The application's security level:

- the application can be accessed only by users who have an account,
- password policy with elements regulating parameters such as password length, frequency of change, complexity,
- passwords are stored in a directory service,
- the Client changing his or her data must confirm the change by entering a password texted to mobile phone,
- access to the system is secured, among others, by a firewall and loadbalancer,
- the Client communicates with the system via encrypted channel,
- the system is subject to monitoring mechanisms to ensure confidentiality, integrity and availability, it undergoes periodic security tests and is updated on a regular basis.

We are committed above all to facilitating as much as possible customer experience for employees and making it easy for them to access information about their PPK scheme, and to this end the indispensable tool is an online application for employees.

Employees – Participants of the PPK scheme will have access to the application that enables them to access information about their assets on-line and place a wide range of conversion orders, without participation of their employer. Mój Allianz service will additionally provide them with access to other individual and group products active for the Participant of the PPK scheme during one login session on one website. Solution which provides comprehensive access to all insurance, investment and pension products in one place.

The application has been built on the basis of the best industry standards and security standards, while taking into account the methods for maintaining high availability of the system.

We also assume the possibility of integration with HR and payroll systems and benefit platforms made available by the employer to its employees. We have ample experience in integration with banking systems as regards distribution and operation of investment funds. Customers of the banks that offer our funds may manage their assets accumulated in our funds from the level of their bank accounts.

Those Participants of the PPK scheme who choose not to use our electronic tools will be provided with traditional forms of communication in the form of paper-based mail at their request, or the option of customer service in our offices across Poland.

Dedicated account manager

Our expert in investment and pension schemes will provide you with a complete service and assistance on every stage of the roll-out and operation of the Employee Capital Plan (PPK). Our account managers have been working on the financial market for more than ten years.

Comprehensive assistance can be provided by agents available in Our main Branch Offices facilities located across Poland.
